

Butler County United Way

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 26, 2016

BUTLER COUNTY UNITED WAY CAMPAIGN CABINET MAKING STRIDES

Butler County, Ohio – Butler County United Way is influencing change in Butler County and the 2016-2017 Campaign Cabinet has been instrumental in getting the word out about that impact.

The Campaign Cabinet is a group of community business leaders who are committed to the mission of Butler County United Way. The primary responsibility of the Cabinet is to promote Butler County United Way's vision and mission to local businesses and agencies throughout the county. The dollars raised fund programs and initiatives through partner agencies that support Butler County United Way's three major focuses of education, health and income stability.

This year's cabinet is lead by Neil Cohen (Cohen Recycling) heading up the Education and Healthcare focus, Larry Mulligan (First Financial Bank) leading the Business division and Tina Osso (Shared Harvest) coordinating the NonProfit and Government categories. Joining these chairs are the following volunteers: Christine Birhanzi (Sojourner Recovery Services), Lauren Boettcher (Lakota Schools), Joni Copas (Hamilton City Schools), Alex Counts (US Bank), Lee Geiger (Graydon Head), Patrick Hinker (Clark Schaefer Hackett), Tim Kemper (Park National Bank), Sonja Kranbuhl (Fort Hamilton Hospital), Ricky Lux (US Bank), Doug Manwaring (Liberty Mutual Insurance), Tricia Neeley (First Financial Bank), Lynda O'Connor (Lakota School Board), Mark Rice (Fairfield City Schools), Bill Staler (LifeSpan), Boyce Swift (City of Hamilton), Chip Washienko (West Chester Hospital), Mark Wendling (City of

Connecting and Mobilizing Resources to Improve Lives

Contact:
Pam Cottle, Director of Marketing & Communications
513.785.2348 or pcottle@bc-unityway.org

Butler County United Way

Fairfield), Wally Zancan (US Bank) and Nick Ziepfel (Graydon Head). These volunteers are lending their time and talents to ensure the success of our impact in Butler County.

Additionally, several Campaign Liaisons are assisting in launching workforce campaigns as well as act as advisors to individual company campaign coordinators. These Campaign Liaisons are Sarah Lewis (US Bank), Glenda Couch (US Bank) and Landen O'Banion (First Financial Bank).

“Butler County United Way is excited and grateful to have the many energetic community volunteers on this year’s Campaign Cabinet”, stated Mag Baker, President and CEO. “The strength of our community is determined through collaborative efforts, sharing of talents, and a generous spirit. That is how Butler County will continue to LIVE UNITED.”

Learn more about how you can GIVE, ADVOCATE, and VOLUNTEER by visiting www.bc-unitedway.org.

###

Connecting and Mobilizing Resources to Improve Lives

*Contact:
Pam Cottle, Director of Marketing & Communications
513.785.2348 or pcottle@bc-unitedway.org*